

Royal Archaeological Institute Autumn Meeting

Verulamium – St Albans 28th October 2017

The Autumn meeting for 2017 will be held in St Albans. We will meet at Verulamium Museum and tour the Museum and Roman town with guides, David Thorold and Simon West.

Following the Museum tour, we will walk to the Abbey for lunch. Professor Martin Biddle will be our guide at the Abbey. Then, we will look at the medieval and later architecture as we walk through the town to St Albans City station.

The meeting will start at 11.00 and end about 16.30.

The numbers are limited on this meeting.

Lunch and entrance fees are included in the meeting cost.

Note: St Albans Abbey station is a 20 minute walk to Verulamium Museum. St Albans City station is a 30 minute walk though more trains stop at the City station.

Enquiries to: csraison@gmail.com or 01482 470095

Member's name

Address.....
.....

Email.....

Telephone.....

Special dietary requirement.....

Please send metickets at £44.00 per person for the 2017 Autumn Meeting on Saturday, 28th October.

Cheque payable to: 'Royal Archaeological Institute' and please include a stamp with your payment.

The booking form and payment should be returned to:

Caroline Raison
RAI
48 Park Avenue
Princes Avenue
Hull
HU5 3ES